Mode of the operation of the Committee shall be stipulated in detail in the Rules of Procedure adopted by the Committee.

X. INTERNAL ORGANISATION

Article 59

The internal organisation of ATS, functional titles and job descriptions, number of executives and special requirements for performing activities are stipulated in detail in the Act on Internal Organisation and Functional Titles and Job Descriptions.

The ATS Director shall enact the Act on Organisation and Functional Titles and Job Descriptions following the consent of the Management Board.

The ATS employees shall exercise their employment-related rights and duties in compliance with general regulations governing labour relations if the said rights and duties are not stipulated by this Statute or any other ATS document.

Article 60

The Director shall appoint the Quality Manager to put in place and maintain the ATS management system in accordance with the requirements of the standard defining general criteria for accreditation bodies.

XI. DECISIONS ON ACCREDITATION

Article 61

Decisions on accreditation shall be made after the following conditions have been met to: grant accreditation, maintain accreditation, renew accreditation, change the scope of accreditation (extend and reduce the scope), suspend accreditation, or withdraw accreditation.

An assessment report and/or report produced when resolving complaints and/or written request of an accredited body shall provide the basis for making the decisions on accreditation referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

The Director shall make decisions on accreditation following the proposals of the Accreditation Committee.

If it is determined after the accreditation process that an applicant for accreditation meets the requirements of relevant Serbian, international and European standards, and, where applicable, all additional requirements, including requirements for specific fields, the ATS shall make a decision on accreditation and issue an accreditation certificate and determine the scope of accreditation.

The accreditation procedure is stipulated in detail by the Rules of Accreditation.

XII. GENERAL DOCUMENTS

Article 62

The ATS general documents are as follows: Statute, rules, manuals, decisions and other documents governing specific issues in general fashion.

The Statute is the paramount general document of the ATS.

Amendments to this Statute and other general documents shall be made in line with the procedure and manner prescribed for the adoption thereof.

XIII. OPERATIONAL TRANSPARENCY

Article 63

Activities of the ATS shall be transparent.

The ATS shall make publically available information about the activities it performs in accordance with Articles 3 and 8 of the Law on Accreditation and about the results of the peer evaluation.

Operational transparency shall be enabled by publishing information and data on the operation of the ATS in an official gazette, special publications, ATS internet page, and by providing information and data on the operation of the ATS to the media.

The ATS Director, i.e. a person he/she appoints, is held responsible for the provision of information and data on the operation of the ATS to the media.

The ATS shall, in an appropriate manner, inform its clients and other interested parties about their rights, obligations, procedure to achieve the said rights and obligations, its operation and scope of activities, and about other data of importance to the operational transparency and relationship with clients.

All information about the operation of the ATS shall be made publicly available except in case of the information from the ATS documents marked as confidential in accordance with the law, this Statute or Rules of Accreditation.

XIV. ACCREDITATION DAY

Article 64

Every year the ATS celebrates 9th June as International Accreditation Day and 28th June as Accreditation Day in the Republic of Serbia after the date when the first accreditation was granted.

XV. CONFIDENTIALITY OF DATA

Article 65

Data and information, including documents containing them, shall be considered as confidential if they are obtained in the process of accreditation of conformity assessment bodies. These shall not include general data on accredited CABs and scopes of accreditation thereof.

Furthermore, documents shall be considered as confidential if they are classified as top secret, military secret, business secret, professional or any other secret.

Confidentiality issue can be stipulated by law, sub-laws, general documents of the ATS or by contracts.

Representatives of ATS organs, technical bodies, ATS employees and external individuals are obliged to safeguard the confidentiality of the data they obtain while filling their jobs and they shall sign the Confidentiality Statement.

Unauthorised disclosure of the confidential data and information referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall mean violation of a work obligation, and for the contracted persons that shall mean the termination of the contract.

The persons referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article must not disclose any confidential information about the accredited CABs without a written consent of the accredited body. This shall not be the case when the law stipulates that the said information must be disclosed without such consent.

XVI. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 66

The ATS general documents that must be harmonised with this Statute shall be adopted within six months from the date of entry into force of this Statute.

Article 67

The Statute of the Accreditation Board of Serbia (“Official Gazette of the RS” No. 17/09) shall be repealed with effect from the date of entry into force of this Statute.

Article 68

Upon consent given by the Founder, this Statute shall enter into force on the eighth day following that of its publication in the “Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia”.
